A Credit Union is a financial cooperative, run by ordinary people within your own community on a not-for-profit basis. Bedford Credit Union encourages regular saving and aims to educate our members in money management.

The Supervisory Committee of Bedford Credit Union is an internal audit function unique to credit unions, and is mandatory under regulatory legislation. It carries out checks on finances and procedures on behalf of the credit union's members and board of directors.

We wish to appoint a new team member to audit a sample of transactions and, from time to time, cover other team member's absence.

Whilst candidates for this position may have a background in some aspect of administration or finance, selection will be based purely on reliability, ability to work accurately, and to deliver results to deadline.

If you are looking for a worthwhile part-time activity and can fulfil all or some of the terms of reference we'd like to hear from you ...
